As your Regional Membership Officer, I can assist you in developing and implementing membership development strategies by helping you analyse and understand membership data, create and deliver membership learning sessions, and discover relevant resources and tools to meet your membership goals. Here are several key membership topics that we can discuss to help you strengthen membership in our region, district or club:

- Attraction and recruitment
- Engagement and retention
- Membership and club flexibility
- New club development strategy
- Diversity, equity, and inclusion
